24 Cunningham St, Merredin

Updated and Immaculate – Jump in quick or miss out!

Located on a peaceful street with fantastic neighbours, this 1102m² immaculate property is a short walk away from Merredin College and ready for some new owners.

Warm country feel kitchen is centrally located and complete with modern living conveniences including an under-bench dishwasher, electric wall oven/gas stovetop cooking, island sink and work space.

All three bedrooms are fresh and modern, consistently finished with high pile carpet and window treatments. This neutral colour palette continues throughout the entire home perfectly.

Oak look floating timber flooring flows from the warm front lounge room through to the kitchen/dining spaces and down to the rear room. This versatile space is suitable as either a rumpus, study or retreat.

The comfortable sized bathroom is set away from the bedrooms which features a clever shower over low lying bath setup, large tiles and panel theme walls.

Separate toilet is opposite the laundry which are both finished with the clean and fresh feel that makes this house.

The rear semi enclosed alfresco setting is complete with outdoor blinds, timber privacy panels and timber decking.
