THE QUEEN OF DUKE STREET

“GLENCRAGIE” CIRCA 1920

‘THE QUEEN OF DUKE STREET’

A stunning example of the period and has been listed by the National Trust and Heritage Register of WA.

Completely professionally renovated to a top quality standard. Sweeping lawns and gardens lead you to the wide entrance stairs of this majestic residence.

Welcomed by the original leadlight door you are led into a wide passage, with high ceilings and beautiful polished floors.

There are 3 enormous bedrooms all with lead lights and 2 even have porthole windows.

The huge formal lounge room has had an upgrade to the open fire by a new modern warm log fire. The brand new bathroom features a relaxing ‘claw foot’ bath, double vanity and separate shower and toilet. To the rear of the lounge walk into the family eating area and new modern kitchen with a massive new gas stove that resembles the original one it has replaced.

There are verandahs on three sides with access through lovely French doors. Outside is a huge parking area for guests plus a separate studio building and original double garage.
