□ A Toodyay Icon – Endless Potential in the Heart of Town □

Step into a piece of Toodyay's history with this 1940-built landmark property, proudly positioned on a generous 1,171m² allotment in the bustling town centre.

Recognised on the Shire's Municipal Inventory for its cultural heritage value, this building is more than bricks and mortar – it's a part of Toodyay's story. With zoning under Urban 1 – Central Business area, the site offers substantial commercial development potential, including the spacious land to the rear.

While any development will require referral to the Heritage Council and alignment with the Toodyay Heritage Policies, this ensures the unique character of the town is respected and preserved. The property is recommended to be retained and conserved where possible, offering both historical significance and modern opportunity.

Practical updates have already been completed, including recent termite treatments and electrical safety compliance, providing a solid foundation for the next chapter of this iconic building's life.
