Versatile Brick Commercial Building for Your Next Venture

Positioned in a sought-after location with excellent street frontage, this versatile brick commercial warehouse offers endless possibilities for your next venture. Built in the 60's and located next door to Cummins Theatre on approx 768m², this property comes with plenty of customer parking, prominent window displays and flexible layout options, this property is ready to elevate your business—or even two!

Inside, you'll find 450m² (approx) with not one, but TWO spacious showrooms, each featuring tall ceilings, evaporative air-conditioning and their own front access, allowing the option to run separate businesses or create distinct retail/service zones. A private office with split-system air-conditioning, plus a handy kitchenette, adds comfort and practicality for staff.

The building continues to impress with two exterior toilets, upstairs storage, and rear access off a lane way via double gates leading to additional parking. Two garden sheds provide even more room for tools, stock or equipment.

With a colourful history as a former cinema, tyre shop and flooring showroom, this iconic property is ready for its next chapter. Whether you're expanding, relocating or starting fresh—this is your chance to make it your own.
