

56 Coronation St, Merredin

Quaint Abode in a Great Street

This well-proportioned four-bedroom, one-bathroom home sits on a generous 993m² corner block and offers the rare bonus of two separate rear access points for added convenience.

Step inside via the semi-enclosed front porch, providing both privacy and shelter. The front yard features easy-care gardens and half-height fencing, creating a neat and welcoming first impression.

Upon entry, a central hallway leads to the open-plan kitchen and dining area on the left, with the bedrooms and bathroom positioned to the right. The kitchen and dining space is well sized and serviced by an evaporative air conditioner. The Kitchen features timber benchtops, ample under-bench storage, gas cooking and a walk-in pantry—perfect for practical everyday living.

Adjoining the dining area is a separate, generously sized lounge room, featuring large windows that flood the space with natural light, creating a bright and inviting atmosphere. Serviced by a box air conditioner, this room remains comfortable throughout the warmer months and offers a lovely space to relax or entertain.

The large laundry is located off the kitchen/dining area and offers plenty of space for additional storage, along with a separate toilet positioned at the rear.
