alley of olive trees.

There are separate ablutions for this room outside with separate male and female toilets etc.

These lead into the orchard area and along to the rows of grape vines.

The balance of the homestead features 4 bedrooms and study, renovated bathroom and laundry area, polished floors and separate lounge room.

Outside leads to a sunken garden and lawn area with access to the massive undercover pool and deck area.

An ideal location for family wedding or function.

The whole complex has a wonderful relaxed homely feeling and would suit a multitude of uses or simply make a fantastic family residence.

The balance of the property is arable farmland currently leased to a neighboring farmer.

There is a section of natural granite rocky outcrop that provides some majestic views over the entire property.

A old brick workshop provides space for the farm gear and there is the old piggery that could be reused if required.
