The beautiful little transportable home was located on the block in 2013. The entrance features an elevated verandah and opens via a hallway into the lounge, with kitchen and dining combination adjacent. The central hall way leads on to separate laundry and bathroom respectively on the right and 3 generous bedrooms, each having BIRs on the left and at the end of the hall.

The battle axe block is on an elevated position on the high side of Pioneer place but has gentle - medium slopes and great views to the West and South. The block is completely cleared and ready for beautiful natives, a rockery or terraced garden - the choices are yours!

Suitable for a small family or first home buyers, retirees, fly-in fly-out workers or investors (it would make a great rental) - this property is a must see!
