The spacious master bedroom has floor-to-ceiling sliding windows giving access to the verandah; and a luxury ensuite featuring double-length shower, vanity and toilet.

All the bedrooms are spacious and feature built-in-robos.

The main amenities include separate bathroom, toilet and a laundry.

All wet areas have an attractive tile floor; the living areas and hallway have floating timber floors while the bedrooms are all carpeted.

The property is situated on the top of a hill and catches a pleasant breeze most of the time. It is a large block (1422m<sup>2</sup>) so there is plenty of space outdoors for the attractive garden – which bloomed beautifully throughout the springtime and nicely screens the home from the street – with double garage; caravan parking bay; workshop and undercover entertaining area.

This property represents country living at its finest and excellent value for money. Perfect for families of all ages groups and seniors with regular family visitors.

This property is regularly featured as a home open for inspection (OFI).

Alternatively call Bill to make your private appointment to inspect this fabulous home.
