Appleton House

'Appleton House'

Circa 1899

Toodyay's Pure Heritage

Lovingly restored to its glory days by the current owner 'Appleton House' offers the style and romance of a by gone era not found in today's modern homes.

'Appleton House' is not a house it is a residence and your first inspection will show you the difference.

History shows the property as being once part of the large holding "Westlands" being selected by the Magistrate A.N.Piesse for the fertile soils suitable for vineyards. The properties Date Palms being planted in 1908. Along with 5 magnificent Olive trees framing the Western side of the property.

Privately located just 2km (a short stroll) from the Toodyay townsite and cleverly hidden from the road by the long tree lined driveway leading up to the residence from the gated entrance.
