6 Rosedale St, Toodyay

Stunning Federation Home now UNDER OFFER!!

Step back in time as you enter this beautiful Federation home c1900. Climb the stairs to the large verandah and enjoy the views out to the hills.

As you step inside you will see the traditional wide hallway with ornate ceiling and bedrooms either side. Both the master and second bedroom have working fireplaces with timber mantle pieces. The master bedroom has French doors leading out to the side verandah, perfect for a morning coffee.

The lounge and dining room are of equally impressive proportions, both with their own working fireplaces, high ornate ceilings and all of the period features you would expect in a property built in this era. The lounge room also has a door out to the side verandah.

The kitchen still has its original wood stove as well as an electric oven and separate hotplates. There is plenty of storage and even a servery to the dining room!
