Located in the centre of town, this tidy brick 3-bedroom, one-bathroom home is waiting to be snapped up!

Upon entering the house, you walk into the formal entrance.

To the right, you walk through double French doors to the large living/dining area with tiles throughout. This area is serviced by a wood fire place, two ceiling fans and has rear access through sliding doors.

The kitchen is tucked away with ample bench space and plenty of storage space with a large, double door pantry. The kitchen has great views over the hills and has electric cooking.

To the rear of the kitchen is the laundry with another single door linen cupboard, sliding glass door to access the carport and a separate toilet

To the left of the property, down the hall way, you have yet another linen cupboard. All three bedrooms are well sized and have carpet.

The master bedroom has a large walk-in robe. The two minor bedrooms both have double door built in robes. The third bedroom also has access
